

Sabine Gürtner

Sabine Gürtner is the executive director of WOMNET. She serves as overall coordinator, focal point, and team leader in strategic project implementation, cooperation with international networks and organisations, development of official statements, political consulting and monitoring.

Sabine studied International relations and economics in Munich followed by several years in social and economic research. She then spent 10 years abroad working for UNDP in Brazil (1992-1993), UNIFEM in New York (93-97) and German Agro Action (Welthungerhilfe) in Burkina Faso (98-00). Back in Germany, she joined Friedrich Ebert Foundation and worked on social rights and the promotion of civil society with a regional focus on Asia. She has been a founding member of WOMNET and helped set up the organisation.

You can reach Sabine Gürtner directly at +49 - 228 - 38 92 977; sabine.guertner@womnet.de

Nadine Heller

Nadine Heller is WOMNET's Networking and Communications Officer. She coordinates national and international cooperation with established and new contacts.

She also works specifically on issues relating to Eastern Europe, the European Neighbourhood Policy, and UNECE.

Nadine holds an M.A. from the University of Bonn in North American Studies, Modern History and European ethnology. She spent two semesters at Washington State University and another semester in Rouen, France. She has worked for several social NGOs as well as the Canadian Embassy in Berlin and she is a freelancer with the German Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development.

You can reach Nadine Heller at +49 - 228 - 963 8207; nadine.heller@womnet.de

Inge Hagemann

Inge Hagemann is WOMNET's external financial accountant. She comes in the office on fridays and can be reached at +49 - 228 - 38 92 978; inge.hagemann@womnet.de

Johanna Florek

Johanna Florek studied sociology, cultural anthropology and psychology at the University of Regensburg where she specialised in gender and cultural sociology. She has travelled in Latin America and worked in Spain.

Johanna is working on the "Euromed" partnership of the EU and the Mediterranean Neighbouring countries. She also serves as focal point for the joint internet platform www.enp-programming.eu with our partner networks Eurostep, Aprodev and WWF in Brussels and does a lot of webhosting for our homepage.

You can reach Johanna Florek at +49 - 228 - 38 92 978; johanna.florek@womnet.de

Anne Schönstein

Anne Schönstein works on Financing for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women. She holds a master's in Gender and Development from the Institute of Development Studies (IDS) at the University of Sussex and a degree in business administration with a specialisation in social research. Anne has lived, worked and studied in the UK, Indonesia, and Japan. She wrote her Master's thesis on Fair Trade and gender.

Anne Schönstein can be reached at anne.schoenstein@womnet.de

Astrid Meyer

Astrid Meyer works on the topics of Accra 2008 and the debate on Aid-Effectiveness from a gender perspective. She also takes care of much of WOMNET's PR. She studied at the University of Freiburg and holds a degree in cultural and biological ethnology and gender studies. Her focus is on development and African Studies. Astrid has done an internship in Kenya, leading her to the topic of her thesis: FGM in Somali refugee camps in Kenya from a cultural sciences perspective.

Astrid Meyer's email address is astrid.meyer@womnet.de